Brook's plea of ignorance didn't save him.

TWO of our home military companies—the Light Guard and Lytle Greys—have decided to attend the International Exhibition next year in Philadelphia. Director General Goshorn, of the Centennial Commission, informs Captain Karr, by letter, that military organizations in every part of the country have expressed a determination to participate in the encampments, parades and reviews, which are to form a pleasing feature of the Centennial.

AT a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Home Association No. 3, held Saturday evening, resolutions of respect and esteem were passed deploring the untimely end of Harry R. Silsbee, their late Secretary and associate. An examination of the books of the Association late in charge of the deceased developed the fact that his accounts were entirely correct. Mr. S. W. Bard, Silsbee's late employer, nor none of the young men's friends can explain the cause of the suicide.

A SLIGHT exposure in bad weather, when the system is out of order, often brings out a Stubborn Cold; the attending Cough irritates the Lungs, and if not promptly treated, frequently develops a tendency to a tuberculous condition. To avoid this danger, those troubled with Colds should resort at once to Dr. Jayne's Expecto-rant, which soon loosens and eradicates Coughs, and removes all acute inflammation, and restores the patient to good health once more.

THE Robinson Light Infantry, after a careful recount of the receipts of their series of entertainments, find that unless some charitable citizen or citizens come to their relief their dress uniform will consist of a shako and a pair of spurs. Nice uniform for a parade on the 23d of February. Godiva would be outdone, and the ghost of Washington hide his face for shame. Now if it were only summer, and fig leaves were not scarce, it would not be so bad, but—well, we'll say no more. Let the bleak winds of winter do their worst, the Light Infantry defies the storm.

THE GRAND OPERA-HOUSE.—Mlle. Marie Zoe, after an absence of seven or eight years from our city, begins a brief engagement this evening at the Grand, opening in the military drama of the "French Spy." Mlle. Zoe was at one time a great favorite in these parts, and will no doubt draw a good house this evening. Next week we are to have the Kellogg Opera Troupe at this house.

WOOD'S THEATER.—Furbish's renowned Fifth-avenue Combination, which never fails to draw out a fashionable Cincinnati audience, opens at Wood's this evening in the Union-square version of "The Two Orphans." An English officer, at a large dinner party, sat opposite a petty German Prince. The latter, after dinner, began "flipping" some water from a glass, in sheer wantonness, and contrived to throw some of it in the young officer's face. The officer was equal to the occasion, and without a moment's hesitation said, smilingly, "That's a droll trick, but we do it better in England!" and with a loud laugh he threw a glass of water into the princely countenance. The royal boor was, of course, very angry; but what could he do?

The latest machine for making men honest that has proved a dead failure is the street car conductor's belt-punch. The New York companies have discovered that the manufacture of "dummy" punches which sound a bell, but cut no hole in the conductor's fare record-card, is an established business in that city, and that the dummies are furnished at prices within the means of the poorest conductors.

A "wedding agency" is about to be established in Paris. There will be a chapel and a branch of the Mayorality, so that civil and religious weddings can take place under one roof. Carriages, lawyers, priests, ball-room music, and even the wedding finery will be furnished.

They were talking of a death yesterday when one man asked: "What were his last words?" "He didn't say anything," was the reply. "That's just like him," said the first man, with an approving nod. "There was no gas about him. He was all business."

Old Jim Lick, whose San Francisco real estate went up several thousand per cent. above par on his hands, and who has a chronic habit of making several wills in a year, wants to be buried on a mountain. If the mountain won't come to Lick, he intends to fetch a lick at the mountain.

"HEAL THYSELF." The People's Common Sense Medical Advice, over 350 engravings and colored plates, and sold at the exceedingly low price of $1.50, tells how to cure Catarrh, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, or Indigestion, Sick Headache, and other Headaches, Scrofula, Bronchitis, Throat and Lung Diseases; all diseases peculiar to women, and most other chronic as well as acute disorders. It contains important information for the young and old, male and female, single and married, nowhere else to be found. Men and women, married and single, are tempted to ask their family physicians thousands of questions on delicate topics, but are deterred from doing so by their modesty. This answers just such questions so fully and plainly as to leave no one in doubt. It is sold by Agents, or sent by mail (post-paid) on receipt of price. Address the author, R. V. Pierce, M. D., World's Dispensary, Buffalo, New York.
